

Information on mutual recognition of champion titles

The Main Board of the Polish Kennel Club informs about the agreement on the mutual recognition of the National Champion Title between the Estonian Kennel Union and the Polish Kennel Club. The agreement was signed and came into force on 21.01.2014. Under this agreement the Estonian Champion obtains the title of Polish Champion by receiving the CWC at the international show in Poland and Polish Champions obtain the Estonian Champion title by receiving one CAC at any show set in Estonia.

Moreover, since 2011 there are in force agreements between the Polish Kennel Club and the Lithuanian Cynological Society, the Latvian Cynological Federation, the Ukrainian Kennel Union and the Belorussian Cynological Union. The parties agreed that dogs registered in their studbooks, granted with the show champion title of one of the parties, acquires the show champion title of the other party by receiving one CWC in the case of Poland and one CAC in the case of Lithuania, Latvia, Ukraina and Belarus. The CWC and CAC must be received at the CACIB show.

There is the following procedure of the national champion title approval in countries represented by the parties: the dog owner requests the national cynological organisation (recognized by the FCI) for approval of the title of Polish/Lithuanian/Latvian/Ukrainian/Belorussian Champion and submits the CAC/CWC granted at the international show, the copy of the pedigree and copy of the champion title diploma issued by his country. After receiving and checking the above mentioned documents, the country granting the champion title, sends the diploma on the postal address of the owner.
